

Monday 26 November, 2018

Good luck to all Year 11 students who start their written Mock Examinations today. This will be a good chance for them to see how their revision and preparation for the summer is going. These mocks form a stepping-stone for their preparation over the next six months.

With only three full weeks before we break up for Christmas (on Wednesday 19th December), we have a number of activities taking place.

Forthcoming events:

Little Shop of Horrors – Friday 7th and Saturday 8th December – Tickets on sale soon

Christmas Carol Service – Tuesday 18 December, 7.00p.m. St Mary’s Church, all welcome

Book fair – Thursday 6th until Tuesday 11th December – in the Library

Christmas lunch – Thursday 13th December – this must be booked in advance, there will be no other meals on this day. Orders close on 26th November for students.

Year 9 Parents’ Evening – Wednesday 5 December

Julia Upton