

Monday 1st November 2021

This week saw the return of students to school following half term and a well deserved rest for them. This half term is always a busy one particularly for Year 11 as they start their Mock Examinations.

Hopefully as we move towards Christmas we will be able to do more of our traditional Christmas events such as the church service and the school Christmas dinner, currently we are making plans to go ahead with these and we will respond to the local and national picture as the time comes closer.

Students have returned well and ready to work and my thanks to all parents for making sure students come in with masks to wear around school, as ever our students have responded brilliantly to the need to keep everyone safe and show that care and compassion they so often do.

We have Parents Evening this week for Year 11, we have decided to continue with online parents evenings following a very positive response from parents in our questionnaire. It is a shame not to be able to meet parents in person but hopefully we will be able to hold more events in school again so that we are able to meet more personally in the future.

With warmest wishes

Simon Martin
